Lösungsvorschlag „Was sind Indianerreservate?“

- Reservations are areas the American government has given to the Native Americans.
- In the past they were forced to live there.
- Nowadays the tribes can manage their affairs in their area.
- However there are not enough jobs (apart from tourism).
- Poor living conditions , alcohol and drug abuse are major problems.
- Many people have left the reservations in the hope of finding a better future.
- To improve their situation a better education is essential.
- Besides many find it crucial to fight for their rights. Some go to court to get their land back, or just to gain the right to fish or cut down trees.
