Let's celebrate

Hi students,

I hope you've revised some grammar and vocabulary. If not, please do so. I'm sending you the links again.

This week you are learning about some important American holidays like Martin Luther King's Day or Independence Day. Here are the tasks you should have finished by the end of the week:

① write & learn vocab → p. 191 "To pardon"

② read texts p. 90/92 Let's celebrate

③ do wb p.63/ 1+2 book p.90/ 3

Watch the following movies about American holidays. It might help you to read the English subtitles while listening. And don't worry – you need not understand each word.

Finally read and listen to a children's book about Dr. Martin Luther King. (It's really easy to understand.) I do admire Dr. King and what he has done.
