

7c Englisch 18.5.20

Dear students,

Here are the answers to the exercises from last week. Please check ✓ and correct them if necessary. ✓

p.104/1

1. The colours of the flag are red, white and blue.
2. The capital is Washington, D.C.
3. There are 50 states.
4. Americans often watch American football.
5. NYC means New York City.

p.104/2

1. is
2. stay
3. is
4. do we eat
5. have
6. likes
7. don't eat
8. does everybody do
9. watch

p.104/3

1.
What are you reading at the moment?
– It's a book about the history of Hollywood.
2.
Hey, where are you going?
– I'm walking to the shopping mall. Do you want to come with me?
3.
Can you please help me here?
– Sorry. I'm talking on the phone at the moment. I'll be with you in a second.
4.
All right. I'm ready now.
– Don't forget your raincoat. It's raining now.

p.105/4

1. go
2. go
3. stay
4. are staying
5. have
6. don't like
7. often have
8. are eating

p.105/5

1. have been staying
2. have been smiling
3. have you been doing
4. have been watching
5. has he been doing
6. has been talking
7. has been writing
8. have been taking

Page 2

The present

105/5 1 Make questions in the simple present. Do you need do, does or is?

You can find the answers on the right.
Write the letter for the right answer on the line.
Which word is it?

- No. (E)
- holidays (H)
- for Halloween (T)
- Valentine's Day (R)
- The prom - a dance at the end of high school (A)

1. what - every person - love - ?
What does every person love? H
2. every American family - celebrate - Thanksgiving - ?
Does every American family celebrate Thanksgiving? E
3. which event - be - American students - important - for many - ?
Which event is important for many American students? A
4. what - many Americans - celebrate - in February - ?
What do many Americans celebrate in February? R
5. when - children - always - dress up - ?
When do children always dress up? T

105/5 2 What are these people doing at the mall? (individuelle Lösung)

Look at the picture and write sentences in the present progressive in your exercise book.

The girl in the pink T-shirt is listening to music.
Some people are ...

Here are some words to help you:
eat (a sandwich) • drink (some water) •
send a text message (to a friend) • look at (some clothes) • wait for ...

105/5 3 Simple present or present progressive? Choose the right form of the verbs.

Do you celebrate (you/celebrate) Valentine's Day in Germany? In the USA, February 14 is (be) the most romantic day of the year. People usually send (send) cards to the people they love (love). At school, students sometimes even get (get) cards from people they don't know (not know). Today I 'm/am writing (write) all my Valentine cards. My two best friends are travelling (travel) in Europe right now, so I will send them their cards. My dad never gives (give) my mom a present. But my mom is (be) at the store right now. She 's/is buying (buy) my dad's favorite chocolates.

4 It's Saturday, 5:30 p.m., on Emily's prom night. What is happening?

Complete the sentences in the present perfect progressive with since or for. Draw a line in the timeline.

1. Emily - think about - prom night - a whole year

1. Emily has been thinking about prom night for a whole year.

Finally it's here.

2. she - prepare - everything - Wednesday

2. She has been preparing everything since Wednesday.

3. you - wash your hair - in the bathroom - an hour

3. Her brother wants to use the bathroom:
You've been washing your hair in the bathroom for an hour !

4. the limousine - stand - in front of our house - 5 p.m.

4. Her dad says: It's time to go.
The limousine has been standing in front of our house since 5 p.m. !

5. I - wait - to go to the prom with you - all my life

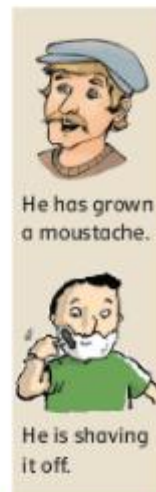

5. Her date tells her:
I have been waiting to go to the prom with you for all my life.

5 Complete the text with the right form of the verb.

Use the simple present, the present progressive or the present perfect progressive.

Movember - a new holiday?

What are you thinking (what/you/think) right now? I know! You are thinking (think) that the spelling of the word "November" is wrong. But it is correct! "Movember" stands for (stand for) "moustache" + "November". Every November men all over the world grow (grow) moustaches. Why do they do (why/they/do) it? Because they want (want) people to learn about men's health problems. Every man becomes (become) a "Mo Bro" if he doesn't shave (not shave) for Movember. A "Mo Bro" usually asks (ask) his friends and family to sponsor him. But he doesn't keep (not keep) the money. It goes (go) to charities. Movember started in Australia in 2003 and the organisation has been growing (grow) ever since.

He has grown a moustache.

He is shaving it off.

	Simple present	Present progressive	Present perfect progressive
Positive sentences	I sometimes go bowling... We usually have two teams	I am working You are working.	Amy has been looking for a good recipe for weeks. He's been trying to call you
Negative sentences	I never go to school on Saturdays. She doesn't like reading.	I am not listening He isn't reading	She hasn't been living here for a long time. I haven't been watching you.
Questions	Do you often visit your relatives? What do you do on Sundays?	Are you enjoying the meal? What is she doing?	Have you been watching TV? How long have you been living here?
Signal words	always, never sometimes, often usually, every ...	now, at the moment, today, Look!	Since (Zeitpunkt) for (Zeitraum: Deutsch „schon... lang“)
When to use it	1 Um zu beschreiben, was jemand regelmäßig / häufig tut. 2 future: Fahrplan Stundenplan	Um zu beschreiben, dass jemand gerade etwas tut. In diesem Moment.	Wenn ein Vorgang oder Zustand in der Vergangenheit angefangen hat und bis in die Gegenwart andauert.

7c Englisch 22.5.20

Here are your tasks for this week:

Book p. 92/ 2+3 p.93/5 + wb p.64/65

Please send your emails to me by Friday so that I can correct them.

Have a good week!

Ste

