① He was shot and killed by one of his best friends. He was drunk himself.

② Religion and alcohol are very important for people living in the reservation.

③ Why does Junior start laughing during Mrs. Jeremy's lesson?

He realizes that the world is not broken down by Indian and white. The world is only broken down into two tribes: people who are "assholes" and the people who are not.

④(Translate p.177-178 “What greater grief than the loss of one’s native land?”... We only know how to lose and be lost.”)

Kein Schmerz ist größer als der, sein Heimatland zu verlieren. Ich las das und dachte:“Klar, natürlich, Mann! Wir Indianer haben alles verloren. Wir verloren unser Heimatland, unsere Sprachen, wir verloren unsere Lieder und Tänze. Wir verloren einander. Wir kennen nichts anderes als zu verlieren und verloren zu sein.“

In like a lion: ①Why does Junior become a good basketball player? ②What important message does his coach give him before the match?

① In Reardan his coach and the other players expect him to be good. She he becomes good.

② You can do it.

③What’s the score at the end of the match? Who wins?

③Reardan beats Wellpinit by four points.

④Why does Junior feel ashamed after the match?

④Because he had wanted to take revenge at the Wellpinit Redskins.

Because Russian Guys are not always geniuses: ①What happened to Mary? Why?

① She died because at a party, when all of them were drunk, the trailer burned down quickly.

②Why can’t Junior stop laughing when his dad picks him up from school?

②He felt scared his dad might have died too./ He was absolutely convinced his dad was dead too. He’s so relieved that he can’t stop laughing.

Remembering: ①What’s the main reason why so many Spokane have died and will die? ②What’s Junior’s resolution?

① Alcohol is the main reason. ② He’s never going to drink because he wants to have a better life in the white world.
