

Worksheet 8c 21.04.-24.04.20

Dear 8c,

How are you? I hope you are fine and you enjoyed your holidays. I spent most of my time reading or chatting to my friends on the phone. There is not a lot you can do right now, is there?

As I understood we will continue our online teaching for quite a while. So I hope you did all of the exercises, corrected them and are now prepared to go ahead.

Today we start by correcting the exercises you had to do before the holidays. If you haven't done them yet please do them now.

Please remember: The exercises are supposed to be for 3-4 lessons so take your time and don't hesitate to send me an e-mail when you need help or you want feedback for the work you did.

Maybe I will hear from some of you?

12 Mixed grammar

Put in the right form of the words in brackets. Find words of your own where you see (???)

In 1616 Pocahontas (sail) sailed to England with her husband. She (not / leave) hadn't left Virginia before, so she (be) was excited. When she (arrive) arrived, she (invite) was invited to visit King James I. She (go) went to his palace. During her (???) visit / stay a picture of her (paint) was painted. In 1617 she (fall) fell ill and (die) died soon after at the (???) age of 22. Her two-year-old son Thomas (grow) grew up in England. Later he (return) returned to Virginia where he became (???) an important man. Today about 50,000 Americans (proud) proudly say that Pocahontas was a member of (???) their family.

Ex 8

13 The party

Complete the conversation. Put in myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves or themselves.

Peter What was the party like yesterday, Jane? Did you enjoy yourself ?
Jane Oh, yes. There were lots of nice people. We all enjoyed ourselves .
Peter Have you looked at yourself today? You look really tired!
Jane I can look after myself . You know, the party itself was a bit boring, but there were two magicians, a man and a woman. They called themselves 'the Blizzards'. While the man was showing his tricks, he was talking to himself quietly. It sounded funny. And the woman cut herself in the arm.
Peter Did she really injure herself ?
Jane No, it was just a trick, but it looked real.
Peter Strange idea! Well, I enjoyed myself at home yesterday. I've made a new computer game all by myself . Would you like to play it?
Jane Yes, please! You don't need a party to enjoy yourself , do you?

2) Reading

I have finally managed to record texts so I thought it would be a good idea to record the text p. 46/47 for you. You can listen to it or read it with me to practice your pronunciation and the pronunciation of the new vocabulary. Please take some time to do this. The title is "Unit3text2".

3) Vocabulary

Learn the words till "crop" p. 131 and write them into your vocabulary book. I have recorded them ("VocabU3") to help you with the pronunciation.

4) Read the text p. 50 in your textbook.

5) Do the exercises 1-3 p. 51 in your textbook.

Please write the answers into your exercise book.

6) Revise the irregular verbs.

Best wishes! M. Weiß
